From Exeter A30, take the A395 signposted for Camelford/Wadebridge Turning left onto the A39, continue through Camelford & follow on to Saint Kew Highway.

Approx 1.5 miles from Saint Kew Highway, you will drive past a white house, called Kelly house and a sign for Chapel Amble/Malters Arms.

Over the brow of the hill (past the small Killibury Nursery sign, the turning for our workshop is a sharp left hand turn (coming back on yourself) sign posted Sandylands Farm.

Follow this road past the nursery taking the turning on the right into the Workshop drive. Continue down the slope and take the 1st slope back up and we're on the right.

From Newquay/Bodmin, join the A39 signposted Bude/Camelford at Wadebridge, the turning for the workshop is approx 1 mile from this roundabout. Go past the lay by (on your right) take the 2nd right turing directly opposite the house/chapel amble sign on your left) there are two turnings, take the turning signposted Sandylands Farm
